

RSG ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

- Families who are not accessing other therapy / early childhood intervention services and present as vulnerable as a result of- family crisis, high levels of stress, hold a pension /disability / health care card and have extreme financial disadvantage; single parent/ aboriginal families who are struggling with parenting and have limited capacity (this may include- No licence or car, no family support and limited social network); and have children with developmental difficulties /concerns.
- Priority is given to families who present with the greatest complex needs and will be allocated dependant on current caseloads and team capacity at the time of referral.